Across 50 states and for more than 12 decades, the essential mission of The Salvation Army has been simply to touch human lives at the point of greatest need. It may be a child needing guidance, a life needing hope or a community needing help. The storms may be national; they may be personal. But regardless of the source, scale or scope of human tragedy, our goal remains the same: serving the most people, meeting the most needs, doing the most good.
 (SA Annual Report)

Proceeds benefit Youth Programs:
 Academy of Music, School Backpack Program, Camp Long Point and others.
